BREITLING

LÉOPOLD DEFOSSEZ, THÉORIE GÉNÉRALE DE L'HORLOGERIE

The go-to reference in watchmaking theory.
GERD-R. LANG AND REINHARD MEIS, CHRONOGRAPH WRISTWATCHES

Complete survey of my favourite type of watch.
MARCO RICHON, OMEGA SAGA

The most comprehensive work about all the key contributions of Omega in watchmaking history.

ERIC GIROUD

PRODUCT DESIGNER AND HARRY WINSTON OPUS 9, OPUS II AND TOURBILLON GLISSIÈRE WATCHMAKER

THE SANDBERG WATCH COLLECTION

This Antiquorum catalogue includes pieces from 1630 to 1900, reflecting an age—which lasted a very long time—of incredible creativity.

PIERRE MICHEL GOLAY

HEAD OF R&D

FRANCK MULLER WATCHLAND

GEORGE DANIELS, THE ART OF BREGUET

A superb, richly illustrated book that gives an idea of the inventive spirit and the technical expertise needed to make watches with the tools available in Breguet's time.

DANIEL AUBERT, MONTRES ET HORLOGERS EXCEPTIONNELS DE LA VALLÉE DE JOUX

This beautiful book introduces 19th- and 20th-century watchmakers who are a little bit forgotten nowadays.

REINHARD MEIS, THE TOURBILLON

This book was written in 1986, tourbillon rebirth time, and is remarkable for its documentation, pictures and technical explanation.

JOHN GOLDBERGER

AUTHOR AND COLLECTOR

RALF EHLERS AND VOLKER WIEGMANN, VINTAGE PANERAI
GISBERT L. BRUNNER AND CHRISTIAN PFEIFFER-BELLI, ARMBANDUHREN

EUGÈNE JAQUET AND DANTE GIBERTINI, LA RÉPARATION DES PENDULES

FRANÇOIS LECOULTRE, LES MONTRES COMPLIQUÉES

LÉOPOLD DEFOSSEZ, THÉORIE GÉNÉRALE DE L'HORLOGERIE

Thanks to these three books, I was able to find answers to questions that helped me to improve on the theoretical and practical bases of my creations.

JAMES GURNEY

EDITOR
QP MAGAZINE

KONRAD KNIRIM, MILITARY TIMEPIECES
The most completely researched book on watches ever.

KESAHARU IMAI, A TIME CAPSULE: THE OMEGA SPEEDMASTER

Another very complete and invaluable reference book.

GEORGE DANIELS, THE ART OF BREGUET

Daniels understands the great master as only a truly gifted watchmaker can.

VIANNEY HALTER

FOUNDER, MANUFACTURE JANVIER, AND HARRY WINSTON OPUS 3 WATCHMAKER

HENRI BOUASSE, PENDULE, SPIRAL, DIAPASON
A very complete and technical document about high technology in horology.

CECIL CLUTTON AND GEORGE DANIELS, WATCHES

Interesting and complete, about watches and the chronometer's history in watchmaking.

EUGÈNE JAQUET AND ALFRED CHAPUIS, HISTOIRE ET TECHNIQUE DE LA MONTRE SUISSE

The history of Swiss watchmaking and its technological developments.

JACK HEUER

HONORARY CHAIRMAN
TAG HEUER

PIERRE-YVES DONZÉ, HISTOIRE DE L'INDUSTRIE HORLOGÈRE SUISSE

The history of watchmaking in Switzerland, including the first serious analysis of the turbulent crisis years of 1975 to 1985.

CÉSAR JEAN-MAIRET

GEORGE DANIELS, LA MONTRE: PRINCIPES ET MÉTHODES DE FABRICATION

The watchmaker's bible. You will find everything in it.

SAMUEL GUYE AND HENRI MICHEL, TIME AND SPACE

The history of clocks and watches is found in this book and shows we have not invented anything: our ancestors did the job for us without the use of today's technology.

GISBERT L. BRUNNER AND CHRISTIAN PFEIFFER-BELLI, WRISTWATCHES

Describes the evolution of the industry.

FRANÇOIS PAUL JOURNE

FOUNDER, CEO AND MASTER WATCHMAKER
F.P. JOURNE

ANTIDE JANVIER, DES RÉVOLUTIONS DES CORPS CÉLESTES

I love this.

GEORGE DANIELS, L'ART DE BREGUET

My bedside book when I was 20 and designing

my first watch. It allowed me to understand mechanical systems I had never seen.

GEORGE DANIELS, WATCHMAKING

I used this book for the manufacturing of my first watch, because at watchmaking school we were taught to assemble and repair, but not to manufacture.

GEORGES KERN

CEO

GUIDO MOCAFICO, MOVEMENT

An amazing book, with large photographs of mechanical watch movements. The pictures illustrate the mechanical complexity as well as aesthetic beauty of true craftsmanship.

KONRAD KNIRIM, MILITARY TIMEPIECES

Knirim takes the reader through the history of these icons, as well as through their different applications in the military context. What strikes me most is the pure and uncompromising beauty of these timepieces. A "form follows function" approach leads to a very impactful, timeless design language.

DAYA SOBEL, LONGITUDE

A book about passion. A captivating story about a genius who solved the greatest scientific problem of the 18th century.

KEN KESSLER

JOURNALIST

LUCIEN F. TRUEB, THE WORLD OF WATCHES

Simply the best-ever single-volume history of the various watch manufacturers. Indispensable.

G.-A. BERNER, DICTIONNAIRE PROFESSIONNEL ILLUSTRÉ DE L'HORLOGERIE

Printed in four languages, explaining every known watchmaking term, cross-referenced by language. No serious watch professional or amateur should be without it.

KATHLEEN H. PRITCHARD, SWISS TIMEPIECE MAKERS, 1775-1975

A two-volume masterpiece identifying every name associated with Swiss watchmaking for two centuries. A breathtaking achievement.

KURT KLAUS

AMBASSADOR AND FORMER HEAD OF DEVELOPMENT AND CONSTRUCTION
IWC

WALTER LANGE, ALS DIE ZEIT NACH HAUSE KAM: ERINNERUNGEN

The craft of mechanical watchmaking isn't limited to Switzerland. Walter Lange relates his very personal memories of an eventful period in A. Lange & Söhne's history.

VARTKESS A. KNADJIAN

MD
BACKES & STRAUSS

DAYA SOBEL, LONGITUDE

John Harrison's invention of the marine chronometer has always intrigued me.

GEORGE DANIELS, WATCHMAKING
